

Consolidation of broadcasting rights in a few hands will be a great disservice to the democratic principles of this country. It will only further damage true freedom of speech and ability to air (pun intended) diverse views on variety of important topics. This is one of the extremely important decision for the FCC and I only hope that the FCC will be influenced by wisdom and not narrow political considerations.